

Date: April 6, 2015
Contact: Joe Stinebaker
Communications Director
O) 713-755-4027
C) 713-503-2610
Joe.Stinebaker@cjo.hctx.net

NEWS ADVISORY

JUDGE EMMETT, PRESERVATION GROUPS TEAM UP FOR ASTRODOME'S 50TH BIRTHDAY PARTY

*Public Invited to Free Party Featuring Dome Visit,
Food, Entertainment, Cake and Souvenirs*

- WHO: Harris County Judge Ed Emmett
Harris County Sports & Convention Corp. Chair Edgar Colon
Various City and County Officials
Eighth Wonder Brewery
Monster Jam Truck OUTLAW and driver Michael Harper
Monster Energy AMA Supercross Motorcycle Riders
- WHAT: Astrodome's Free 50th Birthday Party and Tours
- WHEN: 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., April 9, 2015
- WHERE: Carruth Plaza (northwest corner of Astrodome)
NRG Park
8400 Kirby Drive
Houston, TX 77054

Harris County Judge Emmett, Preservation Houston and the National Trust for Historic Preservation are sponsoring a special 50th birthday party for Harris County's "Eighth Wonder of the World," offering a free celebration of music, food, drinks and souvenirs while supplies last, followed by a rare opportunity for the public to go inside the historic Astrodome for a quick photo with friends and family.

Organizers expect several thousand guests to celebrate Harris County's most iconic and recognizable building. Guests may park free of charge starting at 5:30 p.m. in NRG Park's red lot, just northwest of the Astrodome and north of NRG Stadium.