Harris County District Attorney

DEVON ANDERSON

DA Captures Man Wanted for Several Counts of Sexual Abuse of a Child

Defendants Kelvon Khan, 31 was extradited to Harris County on Friday

District Attorney Devon Anderson announced today that her Office's Extradition Unit captured Kelvon Khan (SPN: 02683369, DOB: 2/11/84), 31 of Sugar Land. Khan is charged with multiple counts of Aggravated Sexual Assault of a Child Under 14, Sexual Assault of a Child 14- 17 and Indecency of a Child.

"This is the third fugitive captured in the last two weeks wanted for sexual abuse of a child. Let this be a warning to all fugitives that we will not give up on finding you," said DA Anderson. "Our office is dedicated to seeking justice for all victims and we will not stop until you are apprehended."

Khan committed the crimes in 2012 and immediately fled to the country of Trinidad and Tobago. The Extradition Unit received a tip that led to locating Khan. He is currently in the Harris County Jail being held without bond. He will appear in the 176th District Court on Wednesday April 15.

The arrest was part of a joint effort with the Gulf Coast Violent Offenders Task Force and the Harris County District Attorney's Extradition Unit. The Office's Fugitive Apprehension Section and Extradition Unit are responsible for the return of all fugitives.
